

K-Love is a radio station that serves me and many in my local community with a positive encouraging message. If K-LOVE would be replaced with LPFM, then many of us would not have access to this station. K-Love offers support to people from all walks of life, and truly is in the best interest of our youth, and adults to grow in positive ways.